

God's To-Do List

Discussion Questions

- 1) What does it mean to be a human being “made in the image of God”? Are there times in your life when you think of yourself in this way?
- 2) What is Judaism’s answer to the question: “What on earth am I here for?”
- 3) Has anyone ever asked you to “be an angel”?
- 4) Ron shares stories to illustrate God’s characteristics—middot (in Hebrew). As you read each chapter, come to the book group with a story about yourself or others that illuminates how human beings emulate God’s ways.
- 5) There are ten categories of ways to be like God, one in each chapter. Are there other ways God acts in the Torah that could be instructive?
- 6) Ask each member of the book group to create a personal “God’s to-do list”—to-dos that each person can aspire to accomplish as God’s partner on earth.
